

Ashari Purnima Celebrations

Ashari Purnima, the second most important day in the Buddhist faith, will be observed with traditional offering of alms to monks, prayers and Dharma discussions by venerable Adicca Mohathero as well as distinguished members of the community.

The occasion signifies the leaving home, first preaching of Dhamma to famous 5 disciples and declaration of the day of Maha Pari Nibbana (death) of Buddha.

The program will start at 9:30 AM on Sunday the 25th July 2010 at the premises of Indonesian Buddhist Society, 37/112 McEvoy Street, Alexandria, NSW 2015.

All community members are invited to attend the program.
