

Boy from Lakemba goes to Manchester to play cricket!

Tahmid Islam Rahman, a Bangladeshi born Australian, a young cricketer from Lakemba went to Manchester, United Kingdom on 24 April to play cricket at the invitation of Hopton Mills Cricket Club in Yorkshire, Manchester. He will be playing as an overseas player for Hopton Mills Club in the Central Yorkshire Division-1 League Cricket. As part of the contract he will be playing for the club for whole season until mid September 2013. He will also form and develop junior teams and provide them train session for the club. Tahmid is a certified level 1 coach from Cricket NSW.

Tahmid is a Sydney grade cricketer and was playing in Second Grade for Western suburbs district cricket club before left for Manchester. Australian cricket captain Michael Clarke used to play for the same club.

It is worth mentioning that Tahmid received Michael Clarke Scholarship-2012 from Western suburbs cricket club last year for his remarkable achievements in grade cricket as well as he was selected best Improved Player of the Year 2012 for his excellent performance and improvement in grade cricket.

Tahmid went to Sri Lanka in July last year in a Cricket tour from his club and played 4 matches against Sri Lankan national under 19 team. His average was 52 runs in 4 games.

Thamid was a student of Canterbury Boys High and now studying Sports Management in Mcleay Collage in Sydney. Tahmid will be back in Sydney at the end of September and look forward to playing for the same club.