

Protest against Dr. Maksudul Bari and ‘Bangla Proshar Committee’s false claim.

– By Asha Hossain, Student of Hornsby Girls High School, Sydney

I have noticed that there was an article posted in Bangla-Sydney.com by Dr. Maksudul Bari and ‘Bangla Proshar Committee named ‘প্রবাসে বাংলা শিক্ষায় সারা হোসেনের সাফল্য’ শীর্ষক প্রতিবেদন প্রসঙ্গে’ translated as ‘Sara made history for learning Bangla language around the world’, and a note from Bangla Proshar Committee ‘‘প্রবাসে বাংলা শিক্ষায় সারা হোসেনের সাফল্য’ শীর্ষক প্রতিবেদন প্রসঙ্গে’’ which means ‘The news of Sara Hossain for achieving success on learning Bangla language in overseas’

I am objecting against Bangla Proshar Committee's note and pleasantly informing you that I have been learning Bangla with Bangla Academy Australia for the last seven years. It appears to me that the ‘Bangla Proshar Committee’ is a bit envious about the success of Sara Hossain. Which is disgraceful for your organisation.

I would rather write to the Department of Education instead of broadcasting incorrect information to the community. I find it extremely insulting towards Bangla Academy who provides us with free Bangla education. Do you run any language schools in Sydney? Bangla Academy Australia is running four language schools; Epping, Blacktown and Lakemba. For details have a look their website, www.banglaacademy.com

May I request to Dr. Bari, do you have proof that the boy in 1997 had gotten that minister's award? If so please write to the authorities, so they will be able to punish Bangla Academy Australia for such a fake claim. Bangla Academy Australia on the other hand have the proof from the Department of Education that Sara was the first Bangalee to receive this minister's award. Please give me some proof or go and write an apology and ask bangla-sydney.com to upload the apology on their website.

In future, I would like to ask you to first study about the topic before making false allegations and broadcasting it to the public.
