

Friends!

Who's the person?

Who's understanding, caring, loving and thoughtful?

Who's this person that's making you so glee.....

IT'S YOUR FRIEND OF COURSE!

Friends are always there for you and me.

If you're feeling sad, friend is always there to help.

Being happy is all people want, but if a friend was with us then it'll be great,

When you're bored at home, what do you do...?

HAVE SOME FUN WITH YOUR MATE!!!!

If you're in a new place, and you don't know any one,

Just sit down and think of a word starting with F and ending with D,

Just go outside your door and search,

If you find a friend then BINGO!!! From then you'll be the happiest person can be.
